Vancouver Farmers Market

A short walk across the park from the Vancouver Hilton!
8th & Esther Street, Vancouver, WA 98660

Phone: 360-737-8298

Time: Saturday - 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM; Sunday - 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

The market is Southwest Washington's #1 visitor attraction and home to more than 100 vendors. You'll discover fresh and local produce, flowers, plants, baked goods, delicious food, pet treats, and accessories for yourself, home, or garden.

What does a day at The Waterfront look like? Plan to grab a fresh seafood dish on the WildFin patio—or swing by the seasonal walk-up What A Catch Fish Bar window for a quick bite of fish 'n' chips and a soft-serve ice cream cone—while watching sailboats pass by the 90-foot Grant Street Pier. A gathering place for all who visit the Waterfront, the cable-stayed pier is the focal point of the new waterfront park, complementing the surrounding $1.5 billion project by Gramor Development. Grab a local beer from Ruse Brewing or The Waterfront Taphouse, or sip a Washington wine at Maryhill Winery's newest satellite tasting room. You can even do a whole wine walk to six tasting rooms within a few blocks! Head to Twigs Bistro if a martini is your drink of choice, or just enjoy a tasty supper while the sun sets on the horizon. For a riverside retreat, stay at the Hotel Indigo—a unique and vibrant boutique property that exudes the local culture of Vancouver—and enjoy a gourmet steak dinner on El Gaucho's terrace patio (both coming soon).

Fort Vancouver

Located on the north bank of the Columbia River, in sight of snowy mountain peaks and a vibrant urban landscape, this park has a rich cultural past. From a frontier fur trading post, to a powerful military legacy, the magic of flight, and the origin of the American Pacific Northwest, history is shared at four unique sites. Discover stories of transition, settlement, conflict, and community.

Pearson Air Museum and its grounds celebrate aviation history with historic structures and archaeological sites tied to the U.S. Army, military aviation, and the colonial Hudson's Bay Company fur trading post. Known for its internationally-significant World War I-era Spruce Production Division Mill Site, the museum is also located next to one of the oldest continually operating airfields in the United States.

Clark County Historical Museum

Located just off Main Street between downtown and Uptown Village, the museum is operated by the Clark County Historical Society (founded in 1917) and housed in Vancouver's 1909 Carnegie Library building. The building is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and received a recent overhaul, including new flooring, fresh paint, exterior improvements, and enhanced meeting space.

Vancouver Mall

8700 NE Vancouver Mall Drive, Vancouver, WA
98662

Southwest Washington's largest and only enclosed shopping center with more than 75 of your favorite stores including Macy's, JCPenney, Old Navy, H&M and more. Dine at more than 20 eateries, take a break in the children's play area or catch the latest movie at AMC 23.

Downtown & Uptown Vancouver

Downtown Vancouver is the city's hub, thriving with locally-owned boutiques, antique shops, and specialty stores. In search of a vintage lifestyle boutique? Check out Most Everything for your latest treasure and 1709 Records to fill your craving for classic tunes. Shop more vintage adornments, apparel, and furniture at Urban Barnhouse and Main Street Vintage. For the unique opportunity to give back to the local community while you shop, find Divine Consign across from Wild Fern Boutique.

Head uptown for a shop-til-you-drop selection of welcoming boutiques and antique shops surrounded by diverse dining options. Within walking distance of downtown, Uptown Village spotlights local and independent shops with Main Street charm. Specialty stores provide shoppers with anything from the hottest comic books to herbal health products.

Union Way Shopping Arcade

Since 2013, Union Way has been connecting West Burnside Street with Southwest Harvey Milk Street via an indoor shopping arcade full of hip local retailers and eateries.

Powell's City of Books is the largest used and new bookstore in the world, occupying an entire city block and housing approximately one million books. Located in downtown Portland's Pearl District, the City of Books has nine color-coded rooms and over 3,500 different sections, offering something for every interest, including an incredible selection of out-of-print and hard-to-find titles. Dozens of acclaimed writers, artists, and thinkers visit each month to read in the Basil Hallward Gallery (located upstairs in the Pearl Room), and a one-of-a-kind Rare Book Room draws bibliophiles from near and far to browse an impressive collection of autographed first editions and other collectible volumes.
