Section 2

The elected ADTSEA Board of Directors (Director) from each Region shall be responsible for providing guidance to the Executive Committee and representing their respective Region on the Board of Directors.

Section 3

The most Senior Director in each Region shall preside during regional meetings of the Association.

ARTICLE VI. ELECTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1

The elective officers shall be:

(a) President
(b) President-Elect
(c) Immediate Past President
(d) Secretary

Section 2

Only persons who have been Active members of the Association for a minimum of one full year immediately prior to official nomination shall be eligible to serve as officers. Candidates for President-Elect shall be from the Board of Directors or shall have served on the Board of Directors. Candidates for President-Elect must be from a Region which is eligible for an elective office under Section 3, this Article.

Section 3

The President-Elect shall not be from the same region as the President.

Section 4

The Executive Committee, as described in Article IX, shall constitute a Nominating Committee for the elective officers of the Association. By March 1 preceding the annual conference, an official ballot shall be prepared and mailed listing not less than two nominees for President-Elect with provisions for write-in candidates. The ballot shall include instructions for return not later than March 30. No one shall be nominated who has not consented, in writing, to stand for election and to serve if elected. It shall be the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to:

4.1 obtain the consent of the nominee to stand for election and to serve if elected,

4.2 conduct a run-off election by mail ballot to determine the officer from among those who share the tie, and

4.3 notify successful candidates of their election by May 1.

The person receiving the greatest number of votes for the particular office shall be declared elected.

Regions eligible for an elective office may submit for consideration by the Executive Committee the names of approved and eligible candidates, not in excess of two, before January 1 preceding the election. These names shall be determined by Region elections or in such other appropriate manner as the Region shall approve. The submitted list will stand as submitted unless it is determined that minimum qualifications are not satisfied, the person nominated indicates a desire not to run, and/or specific information is available to indicate the person's nomination would not be in the best interest of the Association.

Section 5

The terms of office of President, President-Elect, Immediate Past-President and Secretary shall be for one year or until their respective successors have been elected. The term shall begin on September 1 and end on August 31.

Section 6

At the conclusion of the President's term of office, the President-Elect shall become President.

Section 7

In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the President-elect shall complete the vacated term at the conclusion of which he/she shall commence and complete the term for which he/she was elected.

Section 8

In the event of a vacancy in the office of President-Elect, the Executive Committee, with the approval of the Board of Directors, may conduct a special election or appoint a person to carry out the duties of that office until the office can be filled at the annual election.

Section 9

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee and shall perform all duties, as are by custom and parliamentary practice, required of that office.

Section 10

The President-Elect shall assist the President in the performance of the duties of that office and shall assume the duties of that office in the event of the absence or disability of the President. In addition, the President-Elect shall serve as Assistant Conference Chairperson.
Section 11
The Immediate Past President shall serve as Conference Program Chairperson.

Section 12
The Secretary shall prepare, distribute and maintain a permanent record of all business conducted at official Association meetings and perform other duties as are by custom and parliamentary practice or direction from the Board or Executive Committee required of that office.

ARTICLE VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1
The Board of Directors shall consist of the following:

(a) The Executive Committee (defined in Article IX);

(b) Three Directors from each Region, not to exceed one (1) from any state/province/territory (henceforth jurisdiction) of residence, unless no candidate is nominated from other jurisdictions in that Region.

Section 2
The Board of Directors shall be persons who have been members of the Association for a minimum of one full year immediately prior to official nomination or appointment.

Section 3
A Director's term of office shall begin when sworn in. A Director shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms on the Board of Directors. A period of at least one year must elapse before a member can be elected to a third term on the Board of Directors. All Directors shall have the same voting rights and privileges and are expected to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 4
The Regional Directors shall be nominated and elected by the voting members of their respective Regions for a 3-year term beginning in the 2022-2023 association year. Candidates may be nominated at any business meeting of the Region, or in such other appropriate manner as the Region shall approve. The election of Directors shall be conducted by the Executive Committee as outlined for elective officers in Section 4, Article VI.

To facilitate the transition to four Regions, in July 2021, each region shall caucus to determine the Senior, Junior and Freshman members of the region for the 2021-2022 association year. The region shall nominate Freshman candidates for the 2022 election.

Section 5
When Regions do not provide Directors through appropriate election procedures, the Board of Directors shall, during the annual conference following the defaulted election, fill said vacancy.

Section 6
Persons elected to complete a term as Director, a portion of which term has been filled through appointment by the Board of Directors, shall hold office until the expiration of the 3-year term.
Section 7

In the event a member of the Board of Directors is elected to the office of President-Elect, the Board of Directors shall appoint a Director from that Region until the office can be filled at the next annual election.

Section 8

When a member of the Board of Directors becomes disqualified by no longer meeting the qualifications for holding the office or fails to attend a major portion of any regularly scheduled Board meeting without absence approved by the Board, the Board shall appoint an appropriate Director from that Region until the office can be filled at the next annual election.

Section 9

The Board of Directors shall:

9.1 ratify the action of the Executive Committee to employ a Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/Executive Director or contract with an outside agency to provide administrative support services (including a CEO/Executive Director);

9.2 formulate and/or approve policies for the Association;

9.3 interpret the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws in case of doubt relative to its provisions;

9.4 approve an annual budget and render a report to the Association;

9.5 fill vacancies in office until the next election as provided for in Section 8, Article IV and this Article;

9.6 propose to the membership amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws;

9.7 approve honorary members;

9.8 ratify Executive Committee recommendations on membership policies; and

9.9 perform such other duties as may be necessary for the functioning of the Association, including membership categories and dues.

Section 10

The Board of Directors shall be empowered to fill any vacancy which may occur on the Executive Committee by election of an additional Board member thereto, but the total membership of the Executive Committee shall not exceed eight persons.

ARTICLE VIII. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER (CEO)

Section 1

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall perform all duties pertaining to and required of that office including the maintenance of a detailed account of all receipts and disbursements. Disbursement of Association funds shall be made by the Chief Executive Officer under authority of the Executive Committee. The Chief Executive Officer shall fulfill all job-related activities in accordance with the policies of the Association.
Section 2

If the Executive Committee elects to contract with an outside agency to provide administrative support services, such a contract will provide for the duties outlined in Section 1 for a CEO Executive Director to conduct Association business.

ARTICLE IX. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1

The Executive Committee shall consist of the following:

(a) President, who shall serve as Chairperson;
(b) President-Elect;
(c) Immediate Past President;
(d) Secretary/Treasurer;
(e) Board Member Representative (chosen by the Board of Directors);
(f) Two (2) Corporate member representatives appointed by the President and approved by the Executive Committee;
(g) NSSP Liaison.

Section 2

The Board Member Representative of the Executive Committee shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the annual conference. Board members who will be incoming Senior Board Members in their regions for the coming year are eligible candidates for nomination as the Board Member Representative. The Board Member Representative may not be an elected officer of the Association, the Immediate Past President, or the Chairperson of the Budget Committee as stated in Section 1, Article VI. The Senior Board Member’s term of service on the Committee shall be for one year and shall coincide with the term of office of the elected officers of the Association as defined in Section 5, Article VI.

Section 3

The Executive Committee shall:

3.1 recommend policies for the consideration of the Board of Directors;

3.2 assist the President in matters where decisions will affect the policy and welfare of the Association;

3.3 review and evaluate the work of the various committees and keep the Association informed of such reviews and evaluations;

3.4 assist the Budget Committee in the preparation of an annual budget;

3.5 review from time to time, the provisions of the Constitution and recommend changes to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee when deemed necessary;

3.6 perform, subject to review by the Board of Directors and approval by the Association, such other duties as may be necessary for the efficient functioning and administration of the Association; and

3.7 recommend, subject to board ratification, annual conference fees;

3.8 recommend, subject to board ratification, the establishment of contracts over $5,000;
3.9 recommend, subject to board ratification, appropriate dues and membership categories; and

3.10 at the annual meeting, render to the Board and the membership a report on the status and activities of the organization during the preceding year.

Section 4

Declaration of Emergency

4.1 A declaration may be requested, for the Board of Directors’ (BOD) consideration, through one of the following:

(a) when three or more Executive Committee (EC) Members advise the President and Management Team (CEO/Executive Director); OR

(b) the Management Team (CEO/Executive Director), President, and Past-President or President-Elect advise the EC; OR

(c) by a majority vote of the EC.

4.2 The request for a declaration of an emergency shall be considered by the BOD. If warranted, the BOD shall declare an emergency.

(a) A declaration shall give the EC the authority to respond to the emergency.

(b) The BOD shall determine the length of the declaration of emergency. The length of the declaration may be amended by the BOD based on circumstance(s).

ARTICLE X. STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1

The Standing Committees of the Association shall consist of the following:

(a) Budget  (g) Resolutions
(b) Constitution & Bylaws  (h) Standards
(c) Elections  (i) Corporate
(d) Membership  (j) NSSP
(e) Publications
(f) Public Relations

Section 2

Additional committees may be formed or dissolved as deemed necessary by the President upon authorization of the Board of Directors.

Section 3

The Chairperson and members of each committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee. The Chairperson of the Budget Committee shall be the Secretary.
Section 4

Active, Retired, Corporate, and Institutional members may serve on Standing or additional committees created under Section 2 of this article. Each committee shall have a minimum of three members, with the majority being Active members.

Section 5
