Educational Credit for ANSTSE Virtual Professional Development Workshops

Members of the American Driver and Traffic Safety Education Association (ADTSEA) (www.adtsea.org) and the Driving School Association of the Americas (DSAA) (www.dsaa.org) may obtain a Certificate of Participation through their respective member association (must be a member of) as proof of participation for professional development credit.

There is a $15.00 certificate processing fee for each virtual workshop. Attendees can apply to receive a certificate for each workshop they participate in. Each virtual workshop is worth three (3) hours of professional development credit, for a total opportunity of up to 12 hours (four separate certificates).

For those viewing the virtual workshop recording(s) at a later date, you will also need to pass an online assessment/quiz to verify participation to receive a certificate for each workshop viewed.

PLEASE NOTE: You will need to check with your State or local driver education administration to verify if these Virtual Workshop Webinars are an acceptable form of “Continuing Education” or “Professional Development.” ANSTSE, ADTSEA and DSAA cannot guarantee your administration will accept a certificate of participation as a valid form of professional development.

Formal CEUs – ADTSEA and DSAA cannot issue actual Continuing Education Units (CEUs). These can only be obtained through an institution of higher education.
